Dear Brother Chalk:

We are glad to learn that you can come for the proposed meeting. The year is 1963. All of 1962 is now booked. Since you have no preference as to Spring or Fall, may we suggest Spring? May seems to be a good month. If you can, please give us two Sundays so that we can start and end on Sunday.

I will be in Tennessee (Rucker, just out of Murfreesboro) July 3-10 in a meeting. The family is not going this time, as it is so hard on them to try to go with me every place I go. I would love to see you, but I know it will be impossible.

Give our best regards to your family.

Yours in Christ,

Thomas Cook
